Reflection
By Deacon Marty

In today's brief Gospel passage, Jesus is portrayed not only as a teacher of wisdom but also as wisdom personified. Jesus is portrayed as summoning all who labor and are burdened. He is not referring to the hard work that is required for making a living. The real labor and burdens are coming from the way that the religious leaders have interpreted the Torah for the people. Instead of experiencing God's teaching as liberating, it becomes a burden that defeats the very people it was meant to invigorate. Jesus brings an interpretation to the Torah that is quite different from that of the religious leaders at that time. The yoke that Jesus speaks of does not lead to constant stress and anxiety. Instead, the yoke of Jesus leads to rest. This idea of rest or Sabbath was often used in Jesus time as a symbol for the reality of the kingdom of God. Although Jesus promises to make the process easy, this does not mean that it will be effortless or that we are free from our responsibility to follow the commandments, the laws of the Church or the corporal works of mercy. "Pope Paul VI from his homily on Corpus Christi, June, 1974", teaches: 'Jesus says now and always, 'come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.' His attitude towards us is one of invitation, knowledge and compassion; it is one of offering; promise, friendship, goodness, remedy of our ailments; he is our comforter, our nourishment, and our bread, giving us energy and life". In today's world we are all burdened with a variety of situations and fears, whether it be health concerns, loss of our jobs, our relationships, terrorism, or any number of things that weigh us down. We need to remember that Jesus is there for us and all we need to do is to ask for his help. Jesus continues to tell us every day if we just listen, "Come to me you who are heavily burdened and I will give you rest."

FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time July 9, 2017

“At that time Jesus exclaimed: ‘I give praise to you Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to the little ones. Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will... Come to me all you who labor and are burdened and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon your shoulders for I am meek and humble of heart and you will find rest for yourselves.’”

Recently while watching a film clip with youth in a bible study, it was clear that they had a greater understanding of the message than I. They saw things, images, heard music, which revealed a deeper meaning and understanding of the lesson at hand. Yes, God does reveal to the childlike things which often pass us by.

The message for all of us is to place our trust and confidence in the Lord and in responding to His call, learn from Him and the little ones. He reveals Himself as meek and humble, two of the beatitudes which we are called to live. As the minister translated the beatitudes at the inauguration “God blesses the poor in Spirit, God blesses the meek, God blesses the humble...” He surely does.

Hoy, Jesús nos muestra dos realidades que le definen: que Él es quien conoce al Padre con toda la profundidad y que Él es «manso y humilde de corazón» (Mt 11,29). También podemos descubrir ahí dos actitudes necesarias para poder entender y vivir lo que Jesús nos ofrece: la sencillez y el deseo de acercarnos a Él.

A los sabios y entendidos frecuentemente les es difícil entrar en el misterio del Reino, porque no están abiertos a la novedad de la revelación divina; Dios no deja de manifestarse, pero ellos creen que ya lo saben todo y, por tanto, Dios ya no les puede sorprender. Los sencillos, en cambio, como los niños en sus mejores momentos, son receptivos, son como una esponja que absorbe el agua, tienen capacidad de sorpresa y de admiración. También hay excepciones, e incluso, hay expertos en ciencias humanas que pueden ser humildes por lo que al conocimiento de Dios se refiere.

En el Padre, Jesús encuentra su reposo, y su paz puede ser refugio para todos aquellos que han sido maleados por la vida: «Venid a mí todos los que estáis fatigados y sobrecargados, y yo os daré descanso» (Mt 11,28). Jesús es humilde, y la humildad es hermana de la sencillez. Cuando aprendemos a ser felices a través de la sencillez, entonces muchas complicaciones se deshacen, muchas necesidades desaparecen, y al fin podemos reposar. Jesús nos invita a seguirlo; no nos engaña: estar con Él es llevar su yugo, asumir la exigencia del amor. No se nos ahorrará el sufrimiento, pero su carga es ligera, porque nuestro sufrimiento no nos vendrá a causa de nuestro egoísmo, sino que sufriremos sólo lo que nos sea necesario y basta, por amor y con la ayuda del Espíritu. Además, no olvidemos, «las tribulaciones que se sufren por Dios quedan suavizadas por la esperanza» (San Efrén).
