BIBLE STUDY: THE PSALMS

Our parish Bible study meets on Tuesdays at 7:30pm in the parish hall at St. Joachim. We'll meet each Tuesday to read, study and reflect upon the Psalms. These prayer-poems of ancient Israel have played a central role in Christian life and prayer from the very beginning – Jesus Himself prayed the psalms on a daily basis. Come and see for yourself the tremendous richness of this book of Scripture.

All are welcome at any time – there's no need to attend all the sessions. Please bring a bible. Bibles are available at the parish office for $5.

All Souls Day Mass

All Souls Day falls on Thursday, Nov. 2 this year. We will celebrate the feast with our parish memorial Mass on Saturday, November 4 at 10 a.m. at the cemetery. All are invited to attend.

Garage and Rummage Sale

Thanks to all who helped make the Garage and Rummage sale a success.

Christmas Fair – Jewelry Booth

Virginia Norman is working on the jewelry donations already received for our December Christmas Fair. If you have any jewelry or jewelry related accessories you would like to donate, please contact Virginia @831-3348. Thank you!

Make a Difference Day

On "Make a Difference Day", Oct 28 and 29, the St. Vincent de Paul Society will be collecting non-perishable items for the area's food party. They are also collecting personal care items for the Beacon High School Closet for disadvantaged students. Boxes are in the rear of the churches.

To serve your needs better, our pastor would like to know;

- Of any parishioner who is hospitalized
- Of anyone in need of prayer
- Of anyone who would like a pastoral visit

Our parish priests and the Special Ministers of Holy Communion bring the Eucharist to our ill parishioners. The Sacraments of the Sick and Reconciliation are also available from our priests on their visits. If you or someone you know is in need of the Sacraments, please call the parish office.

Through the Outreach Program – Parish Volunteers provide supportive and practical services for seniors and other persons who are in need. These include friendly visiting, telephone reassurance, shopping, and local medical transportation/escort. Drivers are needed for the Outreach Program for doctor's appointments. If you are able to help, please call the parish office.

Recently Deceased: We pray for the people who have recently died and ask God to grant their families and loved ones the strength to carry on until we all join God in the Resurrection:

Reflection By Deacon Marty

Has there ever been a time in your life when you had to make a decision and no matter which way you decided, that decision, in the eyes of some would always be wrong and you would probably suffer some type of discomfort. In today's Gospel passage this is what Jesus is facing. The Sadducees and the Pharisees were both stern believers in what they each felt was correct. By His answer, Jesus took the middle ground. If He said that it was lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, the Pharisees would have discredited him in the eyes of the people. If He said that it was unlawful, then the Herodian's would have been able to denounce Him to the Roman authorities. Jesus' answer is so profound that the Herodian's fail to grasp it's meaning. Jesus' answer reveals to us a wisdom that is both ancient and yet new. It is the way of wisdom and safety between extremes. It is the middle way. Jesus is the middle way; He is the one who leads us along the middle way. He is the one who stands between humanity and God. Jesus knew the extreme temptations of the material world as well as the spiritual, and so must we. In this passage, Jesus' words show that he recognized civil authority and its rights, but he made it quite clear that the superior rights of God must be respected, and pointed out that it is part of God's will that we faithfully fulfill our civic duty. Those of us who might be a little bit older might remember those famous words from the comedian, Flip Wilson, "The devil made me do it". When we were baptized, we were born again and became adopted children of God. The Holy Spirit came to live in each of us and we in Him. Our new life became a threat to the devil. The devil creates trials and difficulties for us as he puts roadblocks in front of us to sidetrack us in our quest to remain holy. Life in Christ is wild and at the same time joyful. It is a fearful and wonderful thing to fall into the hands of our living God. Life without Christ is a wasted life and life in Christ is an abundant life. So we must be very careful in our daily living that we don't venture too far into the secular world that surrounds us and that we pay attention to remain on the solid ground of our faith.

Domingo XXIX (A) Del Tiempo OrdinarioLECTURAS*1ª Lectura: Is 45, 1. 4-6/2ª Lectura: 1 Tes 1, 1-5Evangelio: Mt 22, 15-21REFLEXIÓN*“Lo del César devolvédsele al César, y lo de Dios a Dios”

Hoy, se nos presenta para nuestra consideración una "famosa" afirmación de Jesucristo: «Lo del César devolvédsele al César, y lo de Dios a Dios» (Mt 22,21).

No entenderíamos bien esta frase sin tener en cuenta el contexto en el que Jesús la pronuncia: «los fariseos se fueron y celebraron consejo sobre la forma de sorprenderle en alguna palabra» (Mt 22,15), y Jesús advirtió su malicia (cf. v. 18). Así, pues, la respuesta de Jesús está calculada. Al escucharla, los fariseos quedaron sorprendidos, no se la esperaban. Si claramente hubiese ido en contra del César, le habrían podido denunciar; si hubiese ido claramente a favor de pagar el tributo al César, habrían marchado satisfechos de su astucia. Pero Jesucristo, sin hablar en contra del César, lo ha relativizado: hay que dar a Dios lo que es de Dios, y Dios es Señor incluso de los poderes de este mundo.

El César, como todo gobernante, no puede ejercer un poder arbitrario, porque su poder le es dado en "prenda" o garantía; como los siervos de la parábola de los talentos, que han de responder ante el Señor por el uso de los talentos. En el Evangelio de san Juan, Jesús dice a Pilatos: «No tendrías contra mí ningún poder, si no se te hubiera dado de arriba» (Jn 19,10). Jesús no quiere presentarse como un agitador político. Sencillamente, pone las cosas en su lugar.

La interpretación que se ha hecho a veces de Mt 22,21 es que la Iglesia no debería "inmiscuirse en política", sino solamente ocuparse del culto. Pero esta interpretación es totalmente falsa, porque ocuparse de Dios no es sólo ocuparse del culto, sino preocuparse por la justicia, y por los hombres, que son los hijos de Dios. Pretender que la Iglesia permanezca en las sacristías, que se haga la sorda, la ciega y la muda ante los problemas morales y humanos de nuestro tiempo, es quitar a Dios lo que es de Dios. «La tolerancia que sólo admite a Dios como opinión privada, pero que le niega el dominio público (...) no es tolerancia, sino hipocresía» (Benedicto XVI).

ANUNCIOS Y EVENTOS PARROQUIALOctubre Es Mes del Rosario

La Iglesia ha dedicado un mes, el de Octubre, para honrar a María con el rezo del Santo Rosario. La fuerza del Rosario: A lo largo de la historia se ha visto como el rezo del Santo Rosario pone al demonio fuera de la ruta del hombre y de la Iglesia. Llena de bendiciones a quienes lo rezan con devoción. Nuestra Madre del Cielo ha seguido promoviéndolo, principalmente en sus apariciones a los pastorcillos de Fátima. El Rosario es una verdadera fuente de gracias. María es medianera de las gracias de Dios. Dios ha querido que muchas gracias nos lleguen por su conducto, ya que fue por ella que nos llegó la salvación. *Por: Catholic.net
