BIBLE STUDY: THE PSALMS

Our parish Bible study meets on Tuesdays at 7:30pm in the parish hall at St. Joachim. We'll meet each Tuesday to read, study and reflect upon the Psalms. These prayer-poems of ancient Israel have played a central role in Christian life and prayer from the very beginning – Jesus Himself prayed the psalms on a daily basis. Come and see for yourself the tremendous richness of this book of Scripture.

All are welcome at any time – there's no need to attend all the sessions. Please bring a bible. Bibles are available at the parish office for $5.

FROM THE PARISH WOMEN'S CLUB

Members of the Women's Club will be handing out packets of Christmas Fair raffle tickets for money prizes before Mass this weekend, November 11/12. Please accept a packet of tickets and purchase them in support of the Fair which will be held December 2/3 in St. John's lower church hall.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING

Next weekend we will make the parish financial figures for the fiscal year ending in August, 2017 available to all parishioners. As always, we will have a parish meeting to address any questions or concerns about the parish finances or the parish in general. The parish meeting will be next Sunday, November 19th at 2pm in St. Joachim's gym.

Please see the items below for upcoming parish activities you will want to participate in.

- Christmas Lottery Party
- Revenue Sharing Program
- Tree of Lights for Christmas
- Annual Parish Meeting
- Christmas Pageant

Information on our Parish Christmas Fair will be forthcoming.

To serve your needs better, our pastor would like to know;

- Of anyone in need of prayer
- Of anyone who would like a pastoral visit

Our parish priests and the Special Ministers of Holy Communion bring the Eucharist to our ill parishioners. The Sacraments of the Sick and Reconciliation are also available from our priests on their visits. If you or someone you know is in need of the Sacraments, please call the parish office.

Through the Outreach Program – Parish Volunteers provide supportive and practical services for seniors and other persons who are in need. These include friendly visiting, telephone reassurance, shopping, and local medical transportation/escort. Drivers are needed for the Outreach Program for doctor's appointments. If you are able to help, please call the parish office.

Preparation

Life is full of surprises and excitements. When a baby is expected to arrive into this world, a lot of preparation goes into it's welcoming; cleaning, clothing, bassinet, baby food, etc. etc. A few months later parents go for shopping to buy appropriate toys, This cycle of preparation goes on from infant stage to childhood stage. Then a new phase of preparation begins for the intellectual growth of the child. This cycle evolves from childhood to youth, youth to adulthood, middle age to old age.

In every phase of life, preparation is inevitable. For instance; before appearing in a test or a competition a lot of hard work goes in whether a class test or sports activity. Failing which; one will be unsuccessful and disqualified.

For Christian believers, God invites us to a higher form of life called the spiritual life. We are prepared for that call from the very day of our baptism and subsequently through the regular reception of the sacraments and sacramentals and other charitable activities. In a nutshell, spiritual life is a continually ongoing process.

This Sunday's gospel is allegorical, which has surprises and excitements. Is Jesus indicating that a day will come that opportunity to make up for what we have failed to do will not be given, that the time for springing into action will have come and gone? Could we find ourselves locked out of the party? Since most of us are sometimes foolish, sometimes wise, what form does foolishness take in our lives? What are we putting off doing?

Being wise means being prepared for a future with the Lord. Jesus is the Wisdom of God who gives us a share of this wisdom as a gift of the Spirit. Let us both seek wisdom and be prepared to welcome it when it comes to us.

Domingo XXXII (A) Del Tiempo OrdinarioLECTURAS

1ª Lectura: Sab 6, 12-16

2ª Lectura: 1 Tes 4, 13-18/Evangelio: Mt 25, 1-13

REFLEXION¡Ya está aquí el novio! ¡Salid a su encuentro!

Hoy, se nos invita a reflexionar sobre el fin de la existencia; se trata de una advertencia del Buen Dios acerca de nuestro fin último; no juguemos, pues, con la vida. «El Reino de los Cielos será semejante a diez vírgenes, que, con su lámpara en la mano, salieron al encuentro del novio» (Mt 25,1). El final de cada persona dependerá del camino que se escoja; la muerte es consecuencia de la vida -prudente o necia- que se ha llevado en este mundo. Muchachas necias son las que han escuchado el mensaje de Jesús, pero no lo han llevado a la práctica. Muchachas prudentes son las que lo han traducido en su vida, por eso entran al banquete del Reino.

La parábola es una llamada de atención muy seria. «Velad, pues, porque no sabéis ni el día ni la hora» (Mt 25,13). No dejen que nunca se apague la lámpara de la fe, porque cualquier momento puede ser el último. El Reino está ya aquí. Enciendan las lámparas con el aceite de la fe, de la fraternidad y de la caridad mutua. Nuestros corazones, llenos de luz, nos permitirán vivir la auténtica alegría aquí y ahora. Los que viven a nuestro alrededor se verán también iluminados y conocerán el gozo de la presencia del Novio esperado. Jesús nos pide que nunca nos falte ese aceite en nuestras lámparas.

Por eso, cuando el Concilio Vaticano II, que escoge en la Biblia las imágenes de la Iglesia, se refiere a esta comparación del novio y la novia, y pronuncia estas palabras: «La Iglesia es también descrita como esposa inmaculada del Cordero inmaculado, a la que Cristo amó y se entregó por ella para santificarla, la unió consigo en pacto indisoluble e incesantemente la alimenta y la cuida. A ella, libre de toda mancha, la quiso unida a sí y sumisa por el amor y la fidelidad».
